

HELP JONATHON AFTER HIS HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

I can't believe I'm writing this story from my hospital bed.

Less than 24 hours ago, my life changed in an instant.

On the evening of June 29, 2026, I was riding my motorcycle through Rapid City when a truck suddenly turned in front of me, leaving me with nowhere to go. The impact sent me into a devastating collision that I am still trying to process.

Right now, I am still in the hospital recovering from a dislocated shoulder, a fractured left arm, a broken right wrist that will require surgery, a fractured right thumb, and a fractured right ankle.

As I sit here, I can't help but think about how much worse this could have been. I thank God that I am still here.

Just a week and a half before the accident, I started a new job as an Assistant Manager at Grease Monkey. I was excited for this opportunity and was already enjoying the people I work with and the customers I serve. Unfortunately, with the severity of my injuries, I know I will be off work for quite some time.

The greatest joy in my life is my four children. I share 50/50 custody with them, and being an active dad has always meant everything to me. The reality of not being able to care for them the way I want to because of these injuries has been one of the hardest parts of all of this.

Anyone who knows me knows that I am usually the first person to help someone else and the last person to ask for help myself.

Today, I find myself needing that help.

The funds raised will help with medical expenses and everyday living expenses while I focus on surgeries, recovery, and getting back on my feet for my kids.

If you are able to donate, share my story, or keep me and my family in your prayers, I would be deeply grateful.

Thank you for your kindness, support, and generosity during this difficult time.

Jonathon Schwarz 🇺🇸🇺🇸

HelpVy

<https://helpvy.com/>